Lesson 1 Introduction and Background

Philippians is perhaps the most personal of all Paul's writings. It is indeed a personal letter written to a group that Paul respects, loves and has spent a good deal of time with. It has also been referred to as the "Book of Joy," because the theme is prevalent throughout the book and the word itself is used a number of times.

This lesson will provide a little background on the city of Philippi, the church that was established at Philippi, the writer of the Philippian letter as well as the possible date, time and location of the writing.

The City

- 1) In which province or section of Greece was Philippi located?

- 2) From reference books determine:
 - a) Its location

 - b) Its peculiar relation to Rome

- 3) What indication is there that few Jews lived in Philippi?

The Church

- 1) Acts 16:6-40
 - a) What caused Paul to go to Philippi?

 - b) Who were his first converts?

 - c) What offer was made to Paul and his companions immediately following this first baptism?

 - d) What miracle caused Paul and Silas to be imprisoned?

 - e) Who were converted as a result of Paul and Silas' imprisonment?

 - f) When asked to leave the city, what did Paul and Silas do before their departure?

 - g) Where did they go after leaving Philippi (Acts 17:1)?

- 2) Philippians 4:15-16
 - a) How many times did the Philippians send aid to Paul in Thessalonica?

 - b) At what other time did they assist him?

- 3) 2 Corinthians 8:1-5
 - a) What was the economic condition of the churches of Macedonia?
 - b) How is their affliction described?
 - c) Describe their giving for the poor saints in Judea.
 - d) How did Paul apparently feel about their giving?
 - e) What explains their liberality?

The Writer

- 1) Subsequent visits to Philippi (Acts 20:1-3)
 - a) After the uproar in Ephesus, Paul came to "Greece" and remained for how long?
 - b) Note: This time was most likely spent in Philippi and was the occasion on which 2 Corinthians was written.
 - c) Why did Paul return through Macedonia after his visit to Corinth?
 - d) To what place was he traveling when he returned through Macedonia?
- 2) Jerusalem to Rome
 - a) What happened to Paul in Jerusalem (Acts 21:32-33)?
 - b) How long did he remain a prisoner under Felix (Acts 21:32-33)?
 - c) Where was he finally taken for trial (Acts 27:1)?
- 3) Imprisonment in Rome
 - a) What were the conditions under which Paul was imprisoned?
 - b) How long had he been a prisoner in Rome when Acts was completed?

Conclusions:

- 1) It was almost certainly during this imprisonment in Rome that Paul wrote Philippians. This would make the place of the writing, Rome and the time, 63 or 64 A.D.
- 2) During this same imprisonment, Paul wrote Ephesians, Colossians and Philemon.
- 3) Read through the book. From this reading and from the introduction and any other references available, compile a list of all of those who were or could have been member of the Philippians church at some point.

Lesson 2 (Philippians 1:1-11) The Mind of Christ Regarding Brethren

Philippians 1:1-11 (New King James Version)

1. Paul and Timothy, bondservants of Jesus Christ, To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:
2. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,
4. always in every prayer of mine making request for you all with joy,
5. for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now,
6. being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ;
7. just as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers with me of grace.
8. For God is my witness, how greatly I long for you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.
9. And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment,
10. that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ,
11. being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

In lesson 1 we learned that Paul wrote Philippians from prison in Rome in 63 or 64 A.D. A key verse that we need to remember is Philippians 2:5, "Have this mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus." In Philippians Paul reveals to us the attitudes which the mind of Christ produced in him.

The Author and His Companion

- 1) Paul
 - a) From lesson 1, what past connection did Paul have with the church at Philippi?
 - b) Read through the book and state what you would consider to be Paul's reason for writing this letter.
- 2) Timothy
 - a) What past association did Timothy have with Philippi?
 - b) From your reading of the book, what association was to be expected in the future?
- 3) "Servants of Jesus Christ"
 - a) How does this contrast with Paul's designation of himself to the Romans, Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians, etc.?

b) Can you account for the difference?

The Recipients

1) "All the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi"

a) What is the meaning of the word saint?

a) What other word could be used as a translation here (check the margin of your Bible)?

b) What responsibility does the designation suggest?

c) What men were called bishops of the church in Ephesus (compare Acts 20:17 and 28)?

d) What work are these men exhorted to do in 1 Peter 5:2?

i) What other designation would this imply?

e) What fact in verse 1 shows that the bishops in Philippi were not like modern denominational bishops?

ii) Matthew 8:15

iii) Matthew 20:28

iv) Matthew 25:44

- v) Matthew 27:55
- vi) Luke 8:3

The Greeting

- 1) Grace
 - a) What is the meaning of the word grace?
 - b) Note: This was a greeting which was common to the Greeks.

 - a) What is the meaning of the word peace?
 - b) Do you know the Hebrew word for peace?
 - c) Suggest a possible significance in the order of these
- 3) Source of grace and peace
 - a) God
 - b) Christ

Before you look at the rest of the questions for the remainder of this lesson, read over the text again and write down what it says to you about Paul's attitude toward brethren at Philippi.

Remember that Paul has the mind of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:16), the same mind that we are to have (see Philippians 2:5). These verses reveal the attitude toward brethren which the mind of Christ produced in Paul. What improvements will His mind make in your own attitude?

Paul's Memories of the Brethren

- 1) What things stood out in Paul's memory of the Philippian brethren (vss. 3-7)?

Paul's Emotions as He Remembered Them

- 1) What words or phrases in verses 3-8 reveal Paul's feelings and emotions as he thought of the Philippians?

Paul's Reactions

- 1) From verses 3-9, list some of the things which Paul said he did when he remembered what he did and felt what he did about the Philippians.

Paul's Prayer

- 1) The Prayer
 - a) What did he pray might abound more and more?

 - b) In what two things did he wish it to abound?
 - i)
 - ii)
 - c) What might be the result if love abounded without the two qualities you listed above?

 - d) If these two qualities were increased, what did he say they would be able to do?

 - e) What two things did he want them to be?
 - i)
 - ii)
 - f) How long did he want him to be these two things?

 - g) With what did Paul wish for the Philippians to be filled?

- 2) Applications
 - a) What usually causes us to pray for congregations at a distance?

 - b) What do we most often pray for when we pray for them?

 - c) Why do you think our prayers for churches might be different from the kind of prayers Paul prayed?

Please continue reading Philippians each day or at least every other day, asking yourself whether your sentiments would have been the same as Paul's if you had been writing the letter.

Lesson 3 (Philippians 1:12-20) The Mind of Christ Regarding Adversity

Philippians 1:12-20
(New King James Version)

12. But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel,
13. so that it has become evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ;
14. and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
15. Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill:
16. The former preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains;
17. but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.
18. What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.
19. For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
20. according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death.

Before you consider the questions below, read the verses suggested and describe in your own words what attitude the mind of Christ in Paul caused him to have toward adversity.

What applications do you see for your own day?

Lesson 4 (Philippians 1:19-30) The Mind of Christ Regarding Life and Death

Philippians 1:19-30
(New King James Version)

19. For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
20. according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death.
21. For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
22. But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell.
23. For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better.
24. Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you.
25. And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith,
26. that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.
27. Only let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel,
28. and not in any way terrified by your adversaries, which is to them a proof of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that from God.
29. For to you it has been granted on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake,
30. having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

Lesson 5 (Philippians 2:1-11) The Mind of Christ

Philippians 2:1-11
(New King James Version)

1. Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy,
2. fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
3. Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself.
4. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.
5. Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus,
6. who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God,
7. but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men.
8. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.
9. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name,
10. that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth,
11. and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Intro

- ii.
- iii.
- iv.
- b. If they were to have “one mind” what was the one mind that they should all have?

Lesson 6 (Philippians 2:12-18) The Mind of Christ Regarding Obedience

Philippians 2:12-18
(New King James Version)

12. Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;
13. for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure.
14. Do all things without complaining and disputing,
15. that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world,
16. holding fast the word of life, so that I may rejoice in the day of Christ that I have not run in vain or labored in vain.
17. Yes, and if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.
18. For the same reason you also be glad and rejoice with me.

Intro

1. In verses 5-8 the mind of Christ is described. This description was introduced as an example of humility and unselfish service.
2. As described, the mind of Christ was also one of obedience. How far did He go with His obedience?
3. Some suggest that this tells how "He emptied Himself." He accepted a position as a servant whose only will was to do the will of Him who sent Him (see Hebrews 5:8).
4. Having introduced the obedience of Christ, Paul now applies that lesson to the Philippians. Note the word therefore in verse 12.

The Fact of Obedience

1. What does Paul say they had always done? Do you think this was an acceptance of Paul's authority or of God's?
2. What does he urge them to do in his absence?
 - a. What does this suggest about their responsibility for their own salvation?
 - b. What emotional and physical involvements are appropriate to the magnitude of this responsibility?
 - c. What common religious errors do these words refute?
3. Why should Paul's presence or absence have nothing to do with their obedience?

4. How does God motivate us “to will and to do”?
5. Does verse 13 suggest that man is not responsible for his own salvation?
Harmonize your response with verse 12.
6. For what reason does God work in us?

The Manner of Acceptable Obedience

1. Negatively:
 - a. What would be suggested by murmuring obedience?
 - b. List some other scriptures that indicate how God feels about murmuring.
 - c. What would disputing indicate (this probably means disputing with God)?
2. Positively:
 - a. What three characteristics should we seek as children of God?
 - i.
 - ii.
 - iii.

Result of Obedience

1. “In the midst of a crooked and perverse generation”
 - a. He will be _____
 - b. Does this refer to the church as a whole or to the individual? How do you know?
 - c. How do we achieve this according to verse 16?
2. To Paul
 - a. What would this achievement cause Paul to do?
 - b. When?

Paul’s Joyful Contribution

1. What was he willing to be? (Read Exodus 29:38-46; Numbers 15:1-16 and Numbers 28:7-29 and tell what a drink offering was and its purpose.)
2. What attitude did Paul have toward this?

3. What attitude did he want the Philippians to have about his being “poured out”?

Lesson 7 (Philippians 2:17-30) The Mind of Christ Toward Self

Philippians 2:17-30
(New King James Version)

17. Yes, and if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.
18. For the same reason you also be glad and rejoice with me.
19. But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you shortly, that I also may be encouraged when I know your state.
20. For I have no one like-minded, who will sincerely care for your state.
21. For all seek their own, not the things which are of Christ Jesus.
22. But you know his proven character, that as a son with his father he served with me in the gospel.
23. Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it goes with me.
24. But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.
25. Yet I considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and fellow soldier, but your messenger and the one who ministered to my need;
26. since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.
27. For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28. Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful.
29. Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem;
30. because for the work of Christ he came close to death, not regarding his life, to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

Intro

1. Philippians 2:5-8 describes the unselfishness of Christ and instructs us to have His mind.
2. In Philippians 2:17-30 we see the attitude toward self which was produced in three men who had the mind of Christ.
3. As we study this lesson, each of us should be asking if the mind of Christ has produced such an attitude in us. If not, do we truly have "the mind of Christ"?

Paul

1. What did Paul think might happen to him?
2. How did he describe it in 2 Timothy 4:6?
3. What relation did all of this have to the Gentiles (see Ephesians 3:1, Romans 15:15-16)?

4. How did he feel about the possibility of being offered in this manner?
5. What attitude did he want the Philippians to have about it?

4. What problem had Epaphroditus had while he was with Paul (27)? How serious was it?

5. What seemed to concern Epaphroditus most about his problem (26)?
6. How did God mercifully protect Paul from “sorrow upon sorrow”?
7. Why did Paul not exercise “healing power”?
8. How would sending Epaphroditus to the Philippians cause Paul to be less sorrowful?
9. Verse 30 mentions four different persons or groups – name them.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
10. Which of the four groups listed above was Epaphroditus least concerned about?
11. What attitude did Paul say the church should have toward such men?

Lesson 8 (Philippians 3:1-14) The Mind of Christ Regarding Righteousness

Philippians 3:1-14
(New King James Version)

1. Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. For me to write the same things to you is not tedious, but for you it is safe.
2. Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the mutilation!
3. For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh,
4. though I also might have confidence in the flesh. If anyone else thinks he may have confidence in the flesh, I more so:
5. circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee;
6. concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.
7. But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ.
8. Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ
9. and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith;
10. that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death,
11. if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.
12. Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me.
13. Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead,
14. I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Intro

1. The first part of 3:1 seems disconnected from the remainder of this text, but it serves as a kind of topic sentence for the section. Read verses 1-14; then explain the significance of the statement: "Rejoice in the Lord" in this context.
2. Do you think Paul wrote more than he intended to write following the word "finally"?

False Concepts of Righteousness (3:1-6)

(New King James Version)

15. Therefore let us, as many as are mature, have this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal even this to you.
16. Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us be of the same mind.
17. Brethren, join in following my example, and note those who so walk, as you have us for a pattern.
18. For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:
19. whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame—who set their mind on earthly things.
20. For our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,

1. There is a problem in some translations. In verse 12, Paul says he was not yet made perfect. Yet, in verse 15 some translations say, “Let us, therefore, as many as be perfect...” The word in verse 15 should probably be translated “mature”. (New King James Version)

10. But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity.
11. Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content:
12. I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.
13. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.
14. Nevertheless you have done well that you shared in my distress.
15. Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only.
16. For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities.
17. Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to your account.
18. Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God.
19. And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.
